Prof. Dr. Roman Jordans, LL.M. (NZ)

Rechtsanwalt
Fachanwalt für Bank- und Kapitalmarktrecht

Roman Jordans – CV

2022

Professor of Business Law and Lawyer (of Counsel) at the law firm CBH in Cologne

- After joining IU International University as a Professor in 2022, he remains an of Counsel with CBH and is also practising under his own name

2019

Lawyer at the law firm CBH in Cologne

- In 2019, he joined the banking law team of the law firm CBH in Cologne. Here he continued to advise banks and to litigate for banks.

2017

General Counsel Sparkasse Aachen

- At the End of 2017, he assumed the role of General Counsel of the Savings Bank of Aachen.

2011

Specialist lawyer course specializing in commercial and corporate law

- In 2011, Roman Jordans passed successfully the exam of the Fachanwalt für Handels- und Gesellschaftsrecht (lawyer specializing in commercial and corporate law)

2010

Legal Counsel Sparkasse Aachen

- In 2010, he joined a large regional savings bank, Sparkasse Aachen, to become legal counsel and later on in 2017 general counsel, now advising on banking law matters in an inhouse role.

Prof. Dr. Roman Jordans, LL.M. (NZ)

Rechtsanwalt
Fachanwalt für Bank- und Kapitalmarktrecht

2009

Solicitor (England & Wales)

- After successfully passing the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Test (QLTT) in 2009, he is also admitted as a Solicitor (England & Wales – n.p.). However, he currently holds no practicing certificate and is, therefore, not entitled to advise on English Law.

2008

Specialist lawyer for banking and capital market law

- Since 2008, he is also admitted as Fachanwalt für Bank- und Kapitalmarktrecht, lawyer specialising in banking and capital markets law

2005

Lawyer

- Roman Jordans started his career in 2005 as an Associate at the law firm CMS Hasche Sigle, one of Germany's largest firms. Here, he was part of the banking law team and worked in the Cologne and Berlin offices.
- He advised both banks and borrowers in finance transactions. Furthermore, he acted in numerous litigations on behalf of banks.